The Claimant's Statement should be completed by the beneficiary, except in the following situations:

- If a trustee was appointed by the deceased to act on behalf of the beneficiary, then the trustee should complete the Claimant's Statement.
- Outside Quebec If the beneficiary is a minor and the deceased has not appointed a trustee, then the Court appointed guardian of the beneficiary's property should complete the Claimant's Statement (submit copy of birth certificate and confirm name and address minor is residing with).
- 3. In Quebec If the beneficiary is a minor or lacks legal capacity, and the deceased has not appointed a trustee by separate contract, the beneficiary's Legal Tutor or Curator should complete the Claimant's Statement unless the deceased has appointed a trustee by separate contract (submit copy of birth certificate issued by registrar of civil status).
- 4. If the claimant is not able to handle their own financial affairs, the Claimant's Statement should be completed by their legal representative by virtue of a Power of Attorney Document or Court-appointed Committee (submit a notarized copy of your legal appointment with the other claim documents).

Note: Legislation regarding a minor beneficiary is subject to the province or territory where the member enrolled.

2. When proceeds are payable to the Insured's estate:

The Claimant's Statement should be completed by the estate's legal representative. When insurance proceeds exceed $100,000.00, the following documents must also be attached:

Outside Quebec:
